

Benedictine Oblates of Nebraska

Associated with Sacred Heart Monastery

September 2008

WELCOME BACK! I hope you are as eager to get started again as I am. It has been a short summer, one filled with so much good but also a bit of sadness. I have learned of the special events and vacations from a number of you. There have been family crises and suffering. We find many needing our prayers. We hear Jesus tell us in Luke 22, that he wants to eat the Passover with us, knowing that part of our journey will include the cross. But we also hear Isaiah 65 say: God gives us this wonderful assurance that we will have a permanent dwelling place – not only joy in this world but also in the next. So, it is time now to move back into our studies in Strangers to the City and the Path of Life and renew our efforts in Lectio that God is always most central in our lives.

IMPORTANT NOTICE – PRAYLINE AND NEWSLETTER EMAILS CHANGING:

Starting in September, our email prayer and news notices will change. In order to continue receiving these notices, you must join our oblate email groups. The good news is that we now have over 150 oblates with email addresses! But because the number of oblates continues to grow, we are having many difficulties with services intended to reduce spam and junk email. To solve the problem we are moving to a subscription type service (free) to manage our list.

If you have email, you will soon be getting two email messages inviting you to join these groups. One group is for news and announcements, and the other group is for prayer requests. You will receive very specific instructions in the email, taking you step-by-step through what you need to do to join. Your speedy response will help us send out prayer requests in a timely manner. Thank you! If you need assistance, hopefully you will have family or friend to assist you. Otherwise you can call Marcia Strautmeyer (416-1788), Russ Booton (484-5851) or Teresa Harms (488-3807).

CELL STUDY: This year we will use the text Radical Hospitality, "Benedict's way of love" by Homan, OSB and Pratt. It comes with "A Companion Guide" by Robert Gibson which we will also use. One commentary says, "Radical Hospitality is a quietly dazzling book, overflowing with small stories, teaching by illustration how to attempt to live the Benedictine Rule." I am estimating that for the two, it will cost $20.00 which includes the 20% and tax exemption. Books will be available at the Chapter meetings.

Oblates who have made their Final Oblation last November may now join a Cell. If there are other oblates who wish to join, please contact Sister Phyllis for the times of the various Cells.

ANNUAL OBLATE RETREATS: October 3, 4 & 5 are the dates for our fall retreat at Sacred Heart Monastery and February 20, 21 & 22 will be the early 2009 retreat. The theme is "Balance and moderation." They will begin Friday evening and end Sunday noon.

WELCOME TO OUR NEW ASPIRING OBLATES!
We will introduce them at our September Chapter meetings and list them in the next newsletter.

RECOGNIZING OUR OBLATES: Whereas I know that our oblates are not seeking recognition, I thought you might like to know the enormous numbers of oblates who are continuing "behind the scenes," keeping our Oblate Benedictine Community alive. I also know that there are many others who are willing to help. If anyone has an idea for participation, do feel free to see anyone of us. If I have forgotten someone or something important, do let me know and I will publish it in the next newsletter.

BOOK REVIEW: Seven Sacred Pauses, "Living Mindfully Through the Hours of the Day" by Macrina Wiederkehr.

This is an inspiring book to bring the Divine Office home into our hearts, to pause, play and live in tune with the spirit of each hour.

The author provides creative ways to practice learning to live as vessels of devotion and to pour forth loving service to others.

An inspirational gift of the spirit - to nurture and provide breathing spells for the soul. Submitted by Oblate Darla Weisbeck
