A Word from St. Benedict's Rule

ESTEEMING SILENCE

Let us follow the Prophet's counsel: I said, I have resolved to keep watch over my ways that I may never sin with my tongue. I have put a guard on my mouth. I was silent and was humbled, and I refrained even from good words (Ps 38(39);2-3). Here the Prophet indicates that there are times when good words are to be left unsaid out of esteem for silence. For all the more reason, then, should evil speech be curbed so that punishment for sin may be avoided. Indeed, so important is silence that permission to speak should seldom be granted even to mature disciples, no matter how good or holy or constructive their talk, because it is written: In a flood of words you will not avoid sin (Prov 10:19); and elsewhere, The tongue holds the key to life and death (Prov 18:21). Speaking and teaching are the master's task; the disciple is to be silent and listen.

Reflection

KNOWING THE GLORY OF GOD

The initial stages of learning about religious devotion are naturally related to the flesh. For in our first encounter with religion we come into contact with the letter and not the spirit. But as we get nearer to the spirit and refine the materiality of words with the more subtle forms of contemplation we come to dwell—so far as this is possible for man—purely in the pure Christ, so that we can say with St Paul, "Though we have known Christ according to the flesh, now we no longer know Him in this manner" (Cor 5:16). That is to say, we no longer know Him according to the flesh because, through the intellect's naked encounter with the Logos stripped of the veils covering Him, we have advanced from knowing Him according to the flesh to knowing His "glory as of the only-begotten Son of the Father" (John 1:14).

GLEANINGS FROM THE SEPTEMBER OBLATES' NEWSLETTER

Even though the summer was very hot and humid, we have had enough rain to refresh the earth and keep the grass green and still produce plenty of tomatoes. The early garden was not good, as some of the vegetables didn't even come up, but the fruit trees were abundant with apricots, peaches, plums, and apples. God has blessed us with fruitful gifts for which we are most grateful.

Once again we had beautiful celebrations for this year's Jubilarians. Those Sisters who celebrated their Golden Jubilees on July 23, 2016, were Sisters Jennifer Kehrwald, Joyce Streff, Kathryn Easley, Marietta Kerkvliet, and Margo Tschetter. Many of their families and friends joined us in the beautiful liturgies and the meal that followed the Mass. On August 5, 2016, in a private ceremony here at the Monastery, Sister Madonna Schmitt marked 70 years and Sisters Bernadette McGowen, Louise Marie Goettertz, and Matthew Wehri celebrated 60 years. What a beautiful witness of love and fidelity to monastic life that all these Sisters share with us.

In March 2017, we Sisters will be electing a new Prioress as Sister Penny will complete her six-year term as our spiritual leader. This is a very important and holy election as the Sister elected will be the one who guides us for the next six years. Enclosed with this newsletter is a special prayer that we are asking all of our Oblates to pray several times a week so that the Holy Spirit may help us in

Prayer for the Election of a Prioress

God of all Faithfulness, we ask you to enlighten the minds and hearts of all the Sisters of Sacred Heart Monastery as they prepare to elect the next prioress. May they select a member of the community who is best able to lead the monastery into the future in the Benedictine way of life according to Your will. This we ask in Christ's name and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Oblation Ceremony

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

The Oblation Ceremony will be held on Sunday, November 13, 2016, at 2:00 p.m.

Let us join those who have heard God's call to share in the Benedictine way of life by making their final oblations and welcome those who are making their initial oblations. The oblation ceremony will be held in the James E. Ryan Chapel at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital in Lincoln. We will celebrate Vespers, first oblations for new members, final oblations for novice oblates, and renewal of oblations for current members. A reception will follow in the North Commons.

Friends and family are invited to attend. Sr. Phyllis Hunhoff, Sr. Penny Bingham, and Sr. Patricia Heirigs will be coming from Sacred Heart Monastery for the ceremony. Those making initial and final oblations will meet at 12:45 p.m. in the Chapel for orientation to the ceremony and to meet the sisters. To all who are joining us as novices this year, and those making their final oblations as oblates of Sacred Heart Monastery, we say, "Welcome!"

As the Prologue from the Rule of Benedict tells us: "First of all, every time you begin a good work, you must pray to him most earnestly to bring it to perfection" (RB Prol. 4).

Benedict reminds us that we are all beginners (RB 73). We look forward to joining with you in community as we advance in our spiritual journey, using the Rule of Benedict as our guide.

For those unable to attend the Oblation Ceremony, a Renewal of Oblation Certificate will be attached to the December Newsletter with instructions to scan or mail it back.

Liturgical calendars for 2017 will be available at the Oblation ceremony for a $1.00 donation.

Chapter Opportunities

SPIRITUAL BOOK EXCHANGE

We will offer a book exchange table at the Oblation Ceremony this year. Bring your spiritual books that you no longer need. We will have a space to display them for others to take home. We will donate to a prison ministry any books that do not find new homes.

INTRODUCTION TO THE DIVINE OFFICE

Have you been using Shorter Christian Prayer, but still sometimes feel unsure if you are using it effectively? This session offers an opportunity to get a refresher course. A special session will be held on Saturday, November 5, 2016, at 9:30 a.m. in the Nemaha Room at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital. Lead Dean Carol Olson will provide information about the Liturgy of the Hours as well as how to use Shorter Christian Prayer, our chapter's book for the Divine Office. Please plan to come to this session if you are unfamiliar with how to use Shorter Christian Prayer.

THE OBLATE HANDBOOK IS NOW ONLINE!

The Handbook can be downloaded as a PDF file from the NBO website. Thanks to Oblate David Frye for his work in getting the Handbook online. It can be found under the "Companions" tab.

Paper Handbooks can still be purchased for $12.00 (plus $4.00 if shipped) by contacting a dean.

General Announcements

SNOW AND CHAPTER GATHERINGS

It's that time of year again! If we should have three to four inches of snow, we will cancel the chapter meeting without notice. The meeting will not be rescheduled. The next month's meeting will occur as scheduled with that month's assignment. Should we have a snowstorm that seems hard to judge, an e-mail will be sent. For those without e-mail, please call someone with e-mail.

In all cases, use your best judgment. Be safe.

Area Retreat Offerings

INTRODUCTION

We are fortunate to have several monasteries in our area that provide retreat opportunities. We will continue to call your attention to retreats that may be of interest to our oblates. Please visit each monastery's Web site for more information on these and other opportunities for retreat offerings. For the convenience of the approximately 20 percent of our members who do not have Internet access, we have provided the address and phone number for each monastery.

Prayer Service for Deceased Oblates

Many of you may not be aware that there is a prayer service available for deceased Benedictine oblates. It is a simple and beautiful service and can be offered at the funeral, the visitation, before the brief service performed for you. Please notify a dean and let your loved ones know of your choice. We recommend that you have your wishes for this service on file, if possible. Please complete the form below and return it to any dean or mail it to the chapter. The prayer service and contact form can also soon be found on the Web site.

OBLATE PRAYER SERVICE

Sacred Heart Monastery
Nebraska Chapters

“You broke the Reign of Death, O Lord”

Body and Coffin or remains are sprinkled with Holy Water. A scapula of St. Benedict is placed on left shoulder or around remains. Copy of Oblation is placed on/in the coffin or given to family.

Leader: From the Rule of St. Benedict (RB 7)

“The fourth degree of humility is that when obedience to God’s will becomes difficult ... one’s heart quietly embraces suffering and endures it without weakening or seeking escape.” For scripture says: “Anyone who perseveres to the end will be saved (Matt 10:22),” and again, “Be brave of heart and rely on the Lord (Ps 26:14)”.

Antiphon: (All)

Lord, your love is eternal: do not forsake the work of your hands.

Psalms 138 (All)

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,

You have heard the words of my mouth.
In the presence of the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple.
I thank you for your faithfulness and love
Which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called you answered;
You increased the strength of my soul.
All rulers on earth shall thank you
When they hear the words of your mouth.
They shall sing of the ways of the Lord:
“How great is the glory of the Lord.”
The Lord is high, yet looks on the lowly
And knows the haughty from afar.
Though I walk in the midst of affliction
You give me life and frustrate my foes.
You stretch out your hand and save me,
Your hand will do all things for me.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal,
Discard not the work of your hands.
All honor to God, the Giver of Life,
To Christ, the Risen One,
And to the Spirit, Bond of Love,
Glory and praise forever. Amen

Antiphon: (All)

Lord, your love is eternal: do not forsake the work of your hands.

Leader: _____, an oblate of St. Benedict, a devoted Christian, was admitted into spiritual union and affiliation with the Benedictine community of Sacred Heart Monastery, Yankton, South Dakota, so she/he might share in the spiritual life, prayers and good works of this community.

Oblates proclaim and practice the Christian virtues of faith, hope, and divine love, by believing, hoping, and trusting in God and loving God and others in thought, word and deed.

On behalf of Sacred Heart Monastery, and all of our Oblates, we commend _____ into the hands of God.

All: May her/his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen
